

EDUCATION LICENSURE COMMISSION CLOSED SCHOOLS LISTING

The Education Licensure Commission (“ELC”) maintains and distributes student academic records from formerly licensed institutions in the District of Columbia that closed and was unable to maintain student records. All transcript issuances are copies of records as they appeared in the office of the registrar upon the school’s closing. The ELC is not legally authorized to create documents for students, or to alter documents found in the files of closed schools.

The ELC maintains student records for the postsecondary institutions listed below. If the institution you require records for is not listed below, the ELC does not have the records or information on the location of the records.
